MAY 11 IS FIXED FOR ADJOURNMENT

Assembly Passed the Substitute Osteopathy Bill Without Debate.

CREATE GATES COUNTY

New Primary Bill Substitute on the Program for Disposal This Evening.

WARM DEBATE IS EXPECTED

Madison, Wis., April 25.—A bill was introduced in the senate today by the judiciary committee to enable Judges elected this spring to draw increased salaries provided by the bill which did not become a law by publication until election day, and under which they were cut out, the law applying to judges "hereafter to be chosen," the bill introduced today changes this to "for terms of office hereafter to commence."

The senate passed the resolution for final adjournment fixing the date May 11. It now goes to the assembly.

The barbers' license bill went to the third reading in the senate 18 to 15.

The Bissell bill providing for the appointment of deputy county school superintendents was passed..

The assembly passed the bill allowing municipalities to levy a direct tax for toll bridges.

The Barker bill prohibiting the marriage of divorced persons within a year after divorce was concurred in by the senate.

The assembly passed the substitute osteopathy bill without a dissenting vote.

The bill to divide Chippewa county and to create the county of Gates was concurred in by the assembly.

The assembly will take up the new primary election substitute this evening. The debate is by agreement, limited to one hour on each side and the vote is to be taken by ten o'clock. Stevens will open for the bill and E. A. Williams has the closing for the opposition.

CLASH ON RAILROAD BILLS.

Ad Valorum Bill Will Be Reported in Assembly Tomorrow.

Madison, Wis., April 25.—The Roehr bill empowering county boards to fix the salary of sheriffs was concurred in by the assembly this morning. This is the bill designed to assist Milwaukee county out of its difficulty over the salary of the sheriff. It enables the county to retain the fees and pay that officer a fixed salary of $5,000.

The Young bill amending the law permitting the extension of street railway lines into towns, villages and other cities, met its death in the assembly yesterday, after an unsuccessfull attempt to refer it. The law now provides all that is necessary for street railways in this line, and it was feared that he effect of the amendments would be to allow train, logging or other similiar railways to run along highways.

The senators were not ready to take up the question of doubling the salaries of the legislators yesterday. The joint resolution increasing their pay from $500 to $1,000 with 10 cents a mile each way and no perquisites, was on the calendar, reported by the committee without recommendation. Action on it was postponed for one week.

There is to be another clash between the railroads and the assembly and the outcome will be the same. The committee on assessment and collection of taxes has decided to report the railroad ad valorem bill for passage and the report will be made tomorrow. The committee will be divided as it was on the other railroad bill, with this difference, that the majority will be for this bill instead of against it.

BATTLE ON PRIMARY BILL.

It Will Be Fought Out on Floor of the Assembly Tonight.

Madison, April 25.—The battle on the floor of the assembly over the primary election bill will be fought tonight. The substitute for the Hagemeister bill was reported by the committee on privileges and elections and both sides have agreed to make it a special order for tonight.

There has been general agreement to follow the example of the senate in fighting the matter out without resorting to filibustering but the details of the program have not been yet fully arranged. It is understood that about two hours will be allowed for the debate after which the substitute will be forced upon its final passage under suspension of the rules.

Whatever the outcome will be there is to be no reconsideration and no attempt to prevent a square test. Both sides are claiming victory. The Stevens faction claim that they will pas the substitute in the assembly by as high as twenty votes, while the opponents assert that there is no doubt about he defeat of the substitute and the concurrence in the Hagemeister bill.

The friends of the Stevens bill say that some of the democrats will vote with them on the substitute measure, but while the democrats themselves refuse to talk very freely about the matter there is every reason to believe that they will vote against the new bill. They are understood to be caucusing today.

The only question about heir course appears to be on the concurrence in the Hagemeister bill. From what one or two of the leaders say it is to be inferred that they will stand by it. If they do, the chances are that the bill will be concurred in and will go to the governor for probable veto.

Late last night it was stated that the democrats, with the exception of Mr. Rogers, has decided to vote solidly against the substitute for the Hagemeister bill. They were unable to agree upon concerted action with regard to concurrence on the senate bill. It was thought that they would divide upon that point and that four or five of them would vote against concurrence, but the matter was not definitely decided. If that number vote against it some of the Stevens people will have to vote for it or the primary election bill will die in the assembly.

TWO SURPRISES AT BELIOT.

Ingersoll, City Clerk, Resigns.—Plans to Purchase Waterworks.

Beloit, April 25.—Besides turning down the electric road franchise two more surprises awaited those who attended the common council meeting last night.

The first came in the resignation of George B. Ingersoll, city clerk, who has served with great satisfaction for five years. Business associations led to the resignation. W. A. Hendley was unanimously chosen as his successor.

The second surprise was in a proposition of the Beloit Waterworks company extending the time of the consideration of the proposition to purchase the plant to July 1. A movement headed by W. H. Wheeler is on foot looking to the purchase of the works and at present sentiment seems to be in favor of that course.

REV. N. D. HILLIS SCORES HERRON; WILL NOT MEET HIM ON PLATFORM

Denounces the Socialist Not Because of His Religious Views, But Because of His Conduct Towards His Wife and Children.

New York, April 25.—The Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, has issued a statement as to why he would not meet Prof. George D. Herron at the Get-Together club and it has caused a sensation. Dr. Hillis does not refuse to sit on the same platform with Prof. Herron because of the latter's religious views, he says, but because of his conduct toward his wife and family. Dr. Hillis said:

"I do not wish to be unkind, but there are sins so grievous, so bald, vulgar and crass in their persistency and their virulence that they consume the mantle of charity.

"Consider the conceded facts in the case. This man marries a young woman, and is the father of four children, almost babies; forms a friendship with a young, unmarried woman from whom he accepts money to buy his clothes, hats, shoes, and traveling expenses; against his wife's protest goes abroad with this woman friend and her mother for a year; returns to tell his wife that he has ceased to love her, but loves another, and persistently urges his wife to obtain a divorce. When the wife is asked by the judge if there is any obstacle to their living together, she replies, 'No, except in my husband's mind.'

"This man's spokesman and bosom friend in New Haven, justifies the father's desertion of the four children by saying the woman friend gave the wife $100,000 to give her husband up to her. Mrs. Herron's friends assert that the amount paid was only $60,000.

"Now, some money was paid Mrs. Herron, or else it was not. Suppose no money was paid her. Why has he not denied the statement to save the honor of the mother of his children? If any sum of money was paid his wife by this woman friend, then this man sold himself, and whether for Judas' thirty pieces of silver or $60,000 makes no difference.

"The first supposition leaves him a coward in not defending his babes' mother. The second leaves him a monster, and his friends may take their choice."

NEVER KISSED OR HUGGED A WOMAN

So Declares Prof. A. R. Cook of Northwestern College—Astounds Young Men and Women Students.

Evanston, Ill., April 25.—Professor Algie R. Crook, the bachelor member of the faculty of Northwestern university, surprised the students during a heart-to heart talk in the labratory yesterday by saying that the frivolities of the world had not tempted him. "I have never uttered a profane word said Professor Crook, "never have smoked, chewed tobacco, drank intoxicants, nor hugged or kissed a woman."

The confession brought blushes to the cheeks of the young women of the class, while the young men looked and wondered.

"That is true," added the professor."

"Well," spoke up a student, "you don't know what you've missed, professor."

Professor Crook, after a moment's silence, and as if talking to himself remarked: "Perhaps not."

Professor Crook is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university, a co-educational institution. After finishing the course at that university he studied for two years at Munich. He has been at Northwestern since 1893. He is 37 years old and is known as one of the most athletic and erudite men at the Evanston institution, and is a favorite at Woman's hall.

NO GROUNDS FOR HOLDING THEM

Stark and Clifford, Arrested on the Complaint of Sidney Richards, Are Both Discharged.

H. R. Stark and E. J. Clifford, the two strangers arrested last Monday by Chief Hogan on a warrant sworn out by Sidney Richards, a farmer, residing in the town of La Prairie charging them with obtaining money under false pretenses, were discharged by Judge Fifield this morning when brought before him for a continuation of their examination which was adjourned from Tuesday.

District Attorney W. A. Jackson appeared for the state and T. S. Nolan for the defendants. The district attorney stated to the court that he had no further evidence to offer. Mr. Nolan for the prisoners stated that they waived examination on their part and left the matter in the hands of the court.

Judge Fifield discharged the prisoners saying that from the testimony introduced he did not think there was any grounds for holding them. He also made an order with the consent of the parties that the notes be returned to the parties that gave them.

Stark is a relative of Juror T. F. Martin of the Third ward at Beloit, now on duty in the circuit court. Both Stark and Clifford claimed that they were the victims of a third party and would know more about the business before they again went to work for a stranger.

CLAIMS ON CHINA GROWING LARGER

Amount Will Reach at Least $325,000,000 on July 1—Agree on Three Points.

Pekin, April 25.—Three officers, who were assisting Li Hung Chang in the negotiations conferred with the British, German, French, and Japanese ministres, who told them that the amount of the indemnity claims would reach $325,000,000 by the end of June. If matters were not settled by that time they would increase at the rate of $500,000 per month on account of the expense of maintaining the military forces. It is still uncertain how China is to raise the money.

Chou-Fu, provincial treasurer of Pao-Ting-Fu, who is helping Li Hung Chang, was appointed to confer with the missionaries for a separate settlement of their claims for losses in Chili Province. Bishop Favier represented the French Catholic missions, the Rev. Mr. Owen the British Protestant missions, and the Rev. Dr. Tewksbury the American board. The meeting was an informal one.

The points established were three. First, China's willingness to indemnify native converts for any losses they have sustained if arrangements to that end have not already been made; second, that an attempt would be made to meet all the losses sustained by missionaries and converts in Pekin itself. Such an arrangement is satisfactory, though it will afford the officials a chance for exacting commissions.

WAR NOT ENDED IN SAMAR PROVINCE

Rebels Are Too Active to Warrant Civil Government—600 Filipinos Are Still in the Field.

Manila, April 25.—The Philippine commission left the island of Samar without organizing civil governments. There are said to be 600 insurgents with rifles still out there. Seven companies of the First infantry and one of light battery are garrisoning seven of the forty towns, who asked that the Americans garrison the remaining thirty-three.

The commission promised to ask for an increased military force on its return to Manila.

The insurgents fled from the hills into Catbilogan yesterday before the arrival of the commission at that place. The firing caused no damage and the troops went out this morning to disperse the rebels.

One hundred and fifteen insurgent officers and 2,157 Bolomen surrendered to the Americans at Narcaban on April 22. They also presented rolls of membership which showed that the secret organization known as the Katipunan society existed in all barrios.

Major Noble, Adjutant General of the Depratment of the Visayas, has received the surrender of Quentin Salas and three of his officers. All of the insurgents under Salas will surrender soon. It is claimed that this will terminate the insurection in the island of Panay.

CUBANS WILL BE WINED AND DINED

Recently Arrived Commissioners Visited President and Root Today.

M'KINLEY STANDS FIRM

Platt Amendment Must Stand Until Cuba Shows Fitness to Govern.

THEY WANT LIBERTY NOW

Washington, D. C., April 25.—Shortly before eleven o'clock this morning the Cuban commissioners were driven to the war department, accompanied by General Wood, and there introduced to Secretary Root. After a brief interview they were conducted to the White House for a formal presentation to and conference with the president.

The commissioners will be wined and dined tonight at the White House and will be told in polite language by Senator Platt that the senate meant what it said in passing the amendment which bears his name.

The president will assure them of the benevolent interest of this government takes in the political future of Cuba; that the great ambition of the United States is to safeguard that independence which surely will be theirs as soon as they assent to the plans outlined by congress.

Want Just Two Things.

Washington, April 25.—The Cuban commissioners who are here to interview President McKinley were confined to their rooms yesterday afternoon and evening while their clothes were being pressed and their linen washed. They brought no changes with them.

The commissioners want just two things, according to a statement made by Senor Gonzales—free trade with the United States and absolute independence. This last condition carries the immediate removal of the American military forces now stationed in Cuba. Senor Gonzales says that no other conditions will be acceptable to the people of Cuba.

President Capote refused to be interviewed. He said merely that he believed that the interview with the president oday will result in the establishing good will between Cuba and the United States.

It is gathered that next to the subject of coaling stations and the right of the United States to intervene in Cuban affairs in the interests of peace and order the Cubans most importance to the subject of sugar duties. The commission is trying to secure a remission of the United States duty on Cuban sugar.

The president cannot grant this request as it involves a change in the tariff laws, and therefore application must be had to congress. This may take the shape of direct joint legislation by the two houses or it can be accomplished by the negotiation of a reciprocity treaty.

Tobacco, too, is another subject which the secretary of war will be obliged to discuss with the commissioners, and on that point he wanted advice. The Cubans are extremely desirous of securing a considerable abatement in favor of their own tobacco of the extremely high traiff imposed by the Dingley act upon all importedtobaccos.

President Sends for Cooper.

Racine, Wis., April 25.—Congressman H. A. Cooper of this city, chairman of the comittee on insular affairs, received a telegram from secretary of President McKinley yesterday morning requesting him to return to Washington and meet the members of the Cuban commission, who will be tendered a reception at the White House this evening. Mr. Cooper, who had just returned fro a trip through Cuba left on an afternoon train for Washington.

"Black Jack" Must Hang.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, April 25.—The alleged repjrieve sent from here to the sheriff of Union county, who has charge of Black Jack Ketchum, scheduled to be hanged at Clayton, is a forgery. No word was received this morning concernig the proposition to lynch Ketchum.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

Preparations Begun and Anxiety Over Theses and Orations is at the Annual Fever Heat.

Active preparations for commencement week have been begun at the high school and the annual anxiety over these and orations is at fever heat. Some few have been completed but the majority are in process of construction.

The graduating class this year is a large one and numbers fifty-three members, with a large per centage of young men. The class is a remarkable one in that it is very evenly balanced and the average of scholarship is high.

Commencement exercises this year will be held in the newly furnished auditorium at the high scool building. It is expected now that only two evenings will be devoted to the exercises although it may be found necessary to give a third evening to the sweet girl graduate and her manly class mate.

There will be the customary orations and class song. A novelty in the way of a song is promised and a play is also being written for presentation by several members of the class. The play is also to be unusual in nature and those who have it in charge are endeavoring to keep it shadowed in secrecy. Misses Hazel Willey and Mabel Holloway are writing the play and Miss Flossie Mc Gregor is composing the class song.

As now planned, the commencement exercises will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings, June 5 and 6 the diplomas to be presented on Thursday evening. The commencement week program will close on Friday evening with the reception given by the Alumni Association in honor of the graduates.

HEART OPERATION STILL UNRIVALED

Dr. Daniel H. Williams, Formerly of This City, Does a Wonderful Work in Surgery.

The report from St. Louis of the unsuccessful operation of stitching up a heart wound has recalled a very interesting and successful operation of this nature which was performed by Dr. Daniel H. Williams, a skillful surgeon; who formerly resided in this city. Dr. Williams was at one time associated in partnership with the late Dr. Henry Palmer and is well-known in this city. He occasionally visits his friends here and many people will be interested in knowing that he performed an operation which is still unrivaled in the surgical world.

By his own ability Dr. Williams has risen from comparative poverty and obscurity to an eminent position in the front ranks of his profession. At the time of the operation he was a surgeon in Chicago and later became surgeon at the Freedman's hospital, Washington, D. C.

The operation was performed in the Provident hospital, Thirty-Sixth and Dearborn streets, Chicago, upon James Cornish, an expressman, aged 24, who had been stabbed during a quarrel. He was admitted to the hospital on July 9, 1893, when it was discovered that the wound was about one inch long "three-fourths of an inch to the left of the sternum, trough and in the long axis of the fifth cartillage." The report of the operation and the patient's recovery was published in the Medical Record March 27, 1897.

The wound was dressed, the heart exposed and sewed, and the patient began to improve from the first. Two years after the operation Dr. Williams himself saw his former patient at work in the stockyards and he was reported well a year later.

F. H. Parks of Beloit called on friends in this city yesterday.

STATE GOLF LEAGUE SEEMS ASSURED

Secretary Baker of the Sinnissippi Club, is in Receipt of Letters Favoring the Association

Secretary J. P. Baker is in receipt of a letter from golf clubs in all parts of the state favoring the forming of a State Golf League, and the holding of the first tournament in Janesville. So far the only club in the state to throw cold water on the plan is Milwaukee Country Club. They are making arrangements for holding the annual tournament of the Western Golf Association and would like to have the state tournament. They are opposed to holding it anywhere but in Milwaukee, but at the time of the meeting in Chicago did not care enough about the plan to send a delegate to the meeting. In an interview published in the Sentinel of Tuesday, James C. Wall, captain of the Milwaukee club, when asked about the state organization, said:

"We are doing all we can to assist the organization," he said, "but with so many things on, the different tournaments and the regular match games we shall be rather handicapped. Janesville is at the head of the scheme and no doubt such an organization will be formed, but I doubt whether we shall be able to join."

This states Milwaukee's position exactly. They are anxious to have all the clubs in the state help out in their tournament but they don't care to help along any outside club when they try to get one to be held any where but in Milwaukee.

If troubled by a week digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by Peoples' Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

ANNUAL MEETINGS OF ODD FELLOWS

Old Inter State Society Will Be Revived—It Used to Be a Power in Years Gone By.

The old Interstate Odd Fellows association is soon to be revived. Lodges in northern Illinos and southern Wisconsin will be asked to name delegates to a meeting to be held in Rockford, Ill., in the early summer, at which time the matter will be taken up and the reorganization perfected.

Time was when the association was a power through this section. A decade ago the annual picnics were events looked forward to for weeks and were attended by thousands of people. The last picnic was held in 1892. The following year Joliet was named as the place, but on account of the world's fair the picnic was allowed to run by for a year and the association died out.

It has been suggested that the date of these annual gatherings be on the anniversary day of the establishment of the order in America. The date upon which this falls is April 26, but this is too early in the season for out-of-door meetings and some later time will probobly be selected.

April 26, 1819, the I. O. O. F. consisted of but five members, Thomas Wildey its founder, and four associates consisting the membership of Washington lodge No. 1, of Baltimore, Md. Today there more than 1,000,000 members and the order spends annually $4,000,000 in the relief distress, burying the dead and educating the orphans of deceased members. It has spent during the 82 years of its history $84,543,560 in this laudable work.

During the first 82 years of its history 2,350,000 members have been initiated into and become affiliated with this worthy organization.

In Illinois there are about 82,000 members and it is exerting a wonderful influence for pure government, good homes, good men and good women. Odd Fellowship believes more in man than it does in dollars. The standard of this great order is upright, honest, industrious, virtuous manhood and womenhood. January 26, 1893, the orphans' home was opened at Lincoln, where it is now caring for and educating 150 orphan children, bringing them up to manhood and womanhood as good, loyal, God-fearing, honest, industrious men and women. Since its establishment it has cared for about 300 orphant children at an annual expense of from $18,000 to $20,000, which amount is cheerfully contributed by the nearly 1,000 lodges in Illinois. The value of the buildings and 80 acres of land at Lincoln constituting the orphans' home is $110,000. Special credit for the establishment of this home is due to the sisters—the Rebekah branch of the order, which branch was founded upon the recommendation of the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, ex-vice-president of the United States.

PLANS FOR STATE SCHOOL OF DAIRIES

First Annual Meeting Next Year—Butter Exhibit Will Be Given—To Build New Addition.

Madison, April 25.—The Wisconsin Buttermakers' association is an organization which has met with favor since it started last winter. A meeting of the executive committee was ently held in Madison at the Dairy school and plans were made for the first annual meeting to be held early in January 1902.

A new feature at this meeting will be introduced in the butter exhibit to be held at this time, and this together with the program and discussions will be profitable to all persons interested in this important industry of the state. There are now nearly 100 members in the organization and others are being continually added to it.

A very successful term of the dairy school closed on February of this year. Nearly all of the 120 students that attended are now employed in creameries and cheese factories. Over 150 applications for butter makers, cheese makers and dairymen were received at the school in the past four months.

The new instruction provided in the use and repair of dairy machinery and in the making of foreign cheese is popular with our students and adds to the advantages gained by the teachings of this school.

At the present time plans are being prepared for another addition to the dairy school building. In this extension there will be installed an artificial refrigeration plant, a butter making room, and a room equipped for instruction in pasteurizing milk and cream for retail trade.

About 5,000 pounds of milk are received daily during the winter and this is used by the students in their instruction in butter and cheese making. The next term of the school begins in November, 1901.

LINCOLN'S BODY REMOVED

It Is at Last Placed Within the New Tomb.

FIVE CASKETS TRANSFERRED.

Remains of the Martyred President Taken Up by Trustees of the Monument in Presence of Prominent Illinoisans—Casket Not Opened.

Springfield, Ill., April 25.—Without ceremony the body of Abraham Lincoln was transferred yesterday afternoon from its temporary vault on Monument Hill, in Oak Ridge cemetery, to the tomb in the reconstructed national Lincoln monument. The transfer was officially witnessed by the trustees of the monument and by the Lincoln guard of honor. In addition to these and several distinguished guests a crowd of 300 people assembled in spite of the secrecy maintained and witnessed the removal. Along with the body of the president the caskets containing the remains of his wife, his three sons and his grandson were transferred from the temporary vault to their final resting place. The body of the emancipator was placed in the marble sarcophagus, where it rested when the unsuccessful attempt was made to steal it on the night of the general election in November, 1876. In crypts at the rear of the tomb are immured the bodies of the other members of the family, with two vacant crypts reserved for the bodies of Robert T. Lincoln and his wife.

Lincoln's Relatives Absent.

While no blood relation of the president witnessed the transfer, several relatives of Mrs. Lincoln were there, including Mrs. A. S. Edwards, the surviving sister of the president's wife; Mrs. Edward D. Keyes, a niece of Mrs. Lincoln, and several of her grandnephews. The transfer was made without special incident. Considerable time was taken in the removal of the nine tons of stone that capped the vault where the bodies lay. Even after these immense slabs had been removed with a steam derrick, it was found necessary to demolish one side of the vault before the bodies of the president and Mrs. Lincoln could be raised from the bottom. Without opening, the caskets were then conveyed to the tomb and placed in their respective crypts, the president's remains being left till the last.

Among Those Present.

The members of the board of trustees in charge of the transfer were Governor Yates, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alfred Bayliss and State Treasurer Williamson, besides the members of the Lincoln Guard of Honor, which was organized after the attempt to steal the president's body. The prominent persons present were Senator Cullom, former Governor Tanner, Secretary of State Rose, former State Treasurer Whittemore, Attorney-General Hamlin, Lieutenant-Governor Northcott, Adjutant-General Reece, C. C. Brown, Lincoln Dubois, John W. Bunn, Joseph P. Lindley, Major E. S. Johnson, Colonel N. B. Wiggins, E. F. Leonard, Enoch Payne, Colonel James Babcock, Clinton L. Conkling, George N. Black, Judge S. P. Wheeler, F. W. Tracy and Clark E. Carr, of Galesburg, besides many members of the general assembly. The monument will be rededicated Oct. 15 next, upon the twenty-seventh anniversary of the original dedication. Aside from the altitude of the shaft, which has been lengthened twenty-one feet and nine inches, the reconstructed monument is identical in outline with the original. The principal change in the pile has been made under ground, the foundation now resting on the solid rock at the base of Monument Hill.

Mother Sees Child Drown.

Circleville, O., April 25.—Yesterday Mrs. Frank Irwin, with her four-year-old child in her arms and leading her six-year-old daughter, attempted to cross Little Walnut Creek on a foot log.

The log turned and precipitated all of them into the water.

The mother, by almost superhuman efforts, saved herself and the four-year-old child, but the six-year-old daughter was swept away by the torrent and drowned.

About the New Catarrh Cure.

The new Catarrh Cure is a new departure in so called catarrh cures because it actually cures, and is not simply a temporary relief.

The new Catarrh Cure is not a salve ointment, powder or liquid, but a pleasant tasting tablet containing the best specifics for catarrh in a concentrated, convenient form.

The old style of catarrh salves and ointments are greasy, dirty and inconvenient at the best; the new preparation being in tablet form is always clean and convenient.

The new Catarrh Cure is superior to catarrh powders because it is a notorious fact that many catarrh powders contain cocaine.

The new Catarrh Cure is called Stuarts' Catarrh Tablets, a wholesome combination of blood root, beachwood tar, guaiacol and other antiseptics, and cures by its action on the blood and mucous membrane, the only rational treatment for catarrh trouble.

You do not have to draw upon your imagination to discover whether you are getting benefitted from Stuart's Tablets; improvements and relief are apparent from the first tablet taken.

All druggists sell and recommend them. They cost but 50 cents for full sized packages, and any catarrh sufferer who has wasted time and money on sprays, salves and powders, will appreciate to the full the merit of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Since "Robin Hood," their first joint hit, Harry B. Smith and Reginald De Koven have collaborated on comparatively few works and none of these which they have produced may be said to compare with "Papa's Wife," the musical comedy in which Anna Held comes to the Myers Grand on Friday, April 26. The piece in particular has a particularly amusing story, notably, witty lines and lyrics, several entertaining episodes, and a number of graceful melodies. The production of the play was exceedingly fortunate for Miss Held, who managed to take such advantage of the opportunities offered her that she created a genuine sensation in its title role. Charles A. Bigelow, too, gained much from his delineation of his part of Professor Celestin, a part, by the way, in which he continues to exhibit his variety of drolleries. These two are supported by a cast which includes Max Figman, George Martin, Dan Collyer, Adella Barker, and others. Especial mention is made of the chorus, which, if such a thing is possible is declared to contain more beautiful women than ever before. "Papa's Wife" is described as being staged in a brilliant manner and, therefore, should prove attractive from every point of view.

"She Stoops to Conquer" in which the celebrated comedian, Stuart Robson, will appear in this city at the Grand Opera House on Friday, May 3, is a source of instruction as well as amusing. Every scholar is familiar with the comedy which came from the pen of the distinguished poet, Oliver Goldsmith. To all classes of theatre-goers, however, its presentation by Stuart Robson and his brilliant supporting company will give unbounded delight. No production in which Mr. Robson has appeared has drawn such large audiences as "She Stoops to Conquer" this season. From every city which he has visited comes the report of "standing room only." When the first announcement of the engagement for this city was made public many orders for seats were left at the box office and the number has steadily increased ever since. Judging by these indications Mr. Robson will be greeted by one of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the season when he makes his bow in Janesville as Tony Lumpkin in "She Stoops to Conquer."

He then endeavored to shoot the deputy marshal who arrested him. The dead are: I. H. Farnham. The wounded: Earle Buxton, James Wadsworth, Elmer Z. Lane.

Flames Sweep Nebraska Town.

Plainview, Neb., April 25.—Fire which started at 12:40 o'clock a. m. destroyed half the business section of the town and damaged several residences. The total loss is $35,000. There being no fire department, the citizens formed a bucket brigade. The absence of wind doubtless prevented the destruction of the entire town. Eleven business places and two residences were burned.

EASTMAN GAINS ONE POINT

Certain Evidence Against Alleged Murderer Ruled Out.

FACT WANTED, NOT OPINION.

Day of Sensational Developments in the Noted Cambridge Trial—Druggist Titus Testifies to Seeing the Fatal Struggle—What Victim Said.

Cambridge, Mass., April 25.—Professor Charles R. Eastman of Harvard, on trial for the murder of his brother-in-law, Richard H. Grogan, Jr., July 4 last, gained a critical point today. Judge Gaskill of the superior court, before whom the trial is proceeding, ruled that evidence in the form of repetitions by witnesses of statements alleged to have been made by Grogan as he was dying was not admissible in a certain form, which tended to convey the opinion and not the fact as to whether Grogan had been "killed" or "murdered." The decision came about in this way: After Walter D. Titus, a druggist, who claimed to have seen the encounter between Eastman and Grogan, had testified that he had heard Grogan say, "Charles, you have murdered me," Lottie Broughton was called to the stand. She was asked to repeat what she had heard Grogan say, her testimony having already gone beyond the point where it had been shown that Grogan was wounded. Mr. Elder, attorney for the prisoner, interposing, said he anticipated the answer to be "Charles, you've murdered me," and to it he objected as incompetent evidence on the plain ground that it was Grogan's opinion, not a specific declaration of the dying man. On the same ground he objected to evidence already presented, which in effect was opinion and not bare statement of fact. Attorney General Knowlton took the opposite ground, but the decision was against the government in almost every particular, the exception being that the identical words objected to were allowed to stand in the direct testimony of Mr. Titus.

Day of Sensational Developments.

The entire day was full of sensational evidence, beginning with that of Druggist Titus, who saw the encounter between Eastman and Grogan. Titus said that while passing the rear of the Clark estate in Sambridge, July 4, he heard groans, followed by the words: "Oh, don't! oh, don't!" Looking over the fence witness saw two men struggling. At length one broke away, saying: "Charles, you've murdered me!" These words were repeated, and then the man threw up his hands and ran toward the house. The taller man, who was Eastman, followed slowly. He had an old-fashioned revolver in his hand. Titus, under cross-examination, said that when he saw the two men struggling they were standing side by side in a gateway three and one-half feet wide with their faces turned away from him. He admitted that anything he saw of the men after they parted must have been seen through the pickets of the fence, which ran from either side of the gateway. He said that the defendant appeared to be dazed. Several persons who live in the neighborhood of the Alvan Clark estate told of excitement following the shooting and of hearing cries of "Help! Murder!"

Another Important Witness.

The concluding witness, and the one whose evidence is expected to be very important, was Belle Bryan, the housekeeper for Mrs. Grogan. Her story has not proceed far enough to disclose the government's strength at this point in its chain of circumstances.

TO THE MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF JANESVILLE.

The Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Railway Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Wisconsin, hereby applies to your honorable body for the right, privilege and franchise to construct, maintain and operate a railway with all necessary switches, sidetracks, turnouts, wyes, poles, wires, curves and other fixtures in, upon, along and across certain streets particularly mentioned in the proposed ordinance herto annexed and made a part hereof; and it prays the lawful adoption of an ordinance granting said right, privilege and franchise.

Dated, April 12, A. D., 1901.

Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Railway Company,

By H. H. CLOUGH, President.

AN ORDINANCE, granting to the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Railway company, a corporation organized under the laws of Wisconsin, its successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate an electric railway in certain streets and avenues in the city of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, and prescribing the terms and conditions upon which said streets and avenues may be used and occupied by said railway.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

Section 1. The Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Railway Company, its successors or assigns, is hereby granted for the full term of fifty (50) years from and after the passage of this ordinance, the right and authority to construct, maintain and operate an electric railway for the carriage of passengers, with single track with all necessary switches, sidetracks, turnouts, wyes, poles, wires, curves, and other fixtures in, along and upon the following streets, to-wit:

Commencing at the present southerly limits of the city of Janesville at a point where said southerly limits are intersected by Beloit Avenue, thence northerly on said Beloit avenue to Elliott street, thence westerly on said Elliott street to McKey boulevard, thence northerly on said McKey boulevard to Eastern avenue, thence easterly on said Eastern avenue to the tracks of the Janesville Street Railway Company and thence easterly along and over said tracks or right of way to said Beloit avenue, thence northerly to Main street, thence northerly on said Main street to the intersection of Milwaukee street, provided that the right to use and pass over the tracks or right of way of said Janesville Street Railway company be first obtained by said Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Railway Company, by lease or otherwise.

Section 2. The mode and manner of constructing said railway shall be as follows: The track shall be laid with rails of the tee pattern, along such location in said streets as the said Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Railway Company, its successors or assigns, shall designate and the city council shall approve and be laid and maintained at the present or established grade of said streets or avenues over which it shall pass; and in case at any time the City of Janesville shall change the grade of any street, said railway company its successors or assigns, shall change the grade of the track to correspond to such new grade, at its or their own expense and without any claim against the city for any damage resulting from such change of grade. The rails of such track shall be laid in such manner as to be of as little impediment as practicable to the free and ordinary use of the streets and avenues and the passage of wagons, carriages and other vehicles on or across said track at any point, and in any and all directions and with such suitable gutters at any and all necessary points, so as to permit the free flow of water falling or accumulating on said streets. At all street crossings where there is no paving the track shall be so planked or otherwise constructed as to make safe and convenient crossings for all kinds of vehicles as well as pedestrians, and such crossings shall be maintained in constant good repair. Whenever the City of Janesville shall pave or otherwise improve the streets over which said track or tracks shall pass, the owner or owners of such railway shall be required to pave or improve at their own expense a space of seven (7) feet for single track and fourteen (14) feet for double track with the same material and in the same manner required by the plans and specifications providing for such improvement, provided that in computing said strips of seven (7) and fourteen (14) feet the space included within the tracks of said railway company shall be included as a part thereof. When such railway crosses or runs on any street or avenue that has been paved or improved the owner or owners of such railway shall lay its track and put the paving back to the satisfaction of the City Engineer so as to restore said street or avenue to as good condition as before the track was laid. The gauge of the track shall be four feet eight and one-half inches(4ft. 8½in.). Any part of any street over which said track shall pass outside the limits herein required to be paved or improved by said railway company which shall be excavated or disturbed in the construction of said track shall be restored as soon as possible to its former condition of usefulness. All excavated earth, rubbish or debris accumulated during the construction of the track shall be promptly removed from the street or avenue, and care shall be taken in the construction of the track to obstruct travel upon the street or avenue as little as possible. On streets not paved, all crosswalks which shall be taken up in the construction of the track shall be promptly relaid with the same or similiar material and restored to as good condition as before.

Section 3. Said railway shall be operated with electricity with overhead wires, or other motive power except steam locomotive power, and the company shall have the right to erect all necessary poles and other mechanical contrivances for the purpose of carrying telephone, telegraph or electric light wires for aid in purposes of said railway or for the purpose of furnishing power service to others inside the city, and for the furnishing power, electric light, telephone or telegraph service to others outside the city limits. All poles shall be at least twenty (20) feet in height above ground and as straight as practicable, and they shall be at all times thoroughly painted. They shall be set so as not to interfere with the travel upon the streets and avenues in which said track is to be laid, and entirely outside the line of any intersecting alley, or private driveway of any intersecting street and so as not to injure or obstruct any sewer, water or gas pipe and as directed by the City Engineer. Said railway company shall use and employ the best and most modern method to prevent the escape of returning electricity and electrolysis of the water pipes, gas pipes and underground cables, including gas and water service pipes and connections.

Section 4. The owner or owners of such railway shall place and maintain thereon approved motor cars with the modern conveniences for the comfort of passengers, shall light the same at night, and in cold weather they shall be comfortably heated. Each motor car shall, unless the city council otherwise prescribe, be provided with a headlight which shall be kept burning after sunset, and with a gong or bell for danger signals.

Section 5. Said railway company will take the rights and privileges herine granted subject to the right of the city of Janesville to ordain and establish such reasonable regulations as the common council within its police powers, may from time to time prescribe in respect thereunto.

Section 6. The rate of fare for carrying passengers upon said railway shall not exceed five cents for a single fare from any point upon said route within the city of Janesville in one direction.

Section 7. The owner or owners of said railway shall keep the part of the streets used or occupied by them, including the space between the tracks at switches or turnouts free and clean from dirt and snow or ice or other debris, and in removing snow shall level the same so as not to obstruct or interfere with the free use of said streets. In case the city fire hose or other fire apparatus shall at any time be upon the track of said railway, cars shall be stopped so as not to injure the same or interfere in any way with the fire department in endeavoring to extinguish a fire.

Section 8. The cars belonging to the owner or owners of said railway shall be entitled to the track, and any vehicle or vehicles upon such track shall turn out at the approach of any car, so as to leave the track unobstructed, and the driver of any vehicle refusing to do so shall be liable to a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars and costs of prosecution.

Section 9. The city of Janesville reserves the right to grant to any other company or corporation operating a strert railway the right to cross the track of the railway hereby established at grade, upon such terms as the city council may deem just and equitable, in case the owners of said railways shall fail to come to an agreement, by arbitration or otherwise, between themselves.

Section 10. In case the owner or owners if said railway shall at any time fail or neglect after due notice to do any of the work herein required of them in the way of street construction, improvement or repair, then the cost thereof may be paid by the city of Janesville or it may cause said work to be done and recover the sum or sums so paid or incurred by it by action against the owner or owners of said railway.

Section 11. Said railway hereby provided for shall begin its construction within one year and be completed and in operation not later than three years from the date of the passage of this ordinance, otherwise the grant herein created shall beome null and void unless the completion of said railway is prevented by legal proceedings. Nature's Powers of Healing.

HOW IT CURES.

PROF. FUNK

In answer to numerous inquiries concerning his method of treatment, Prof. Funk gives the following brief explanation:

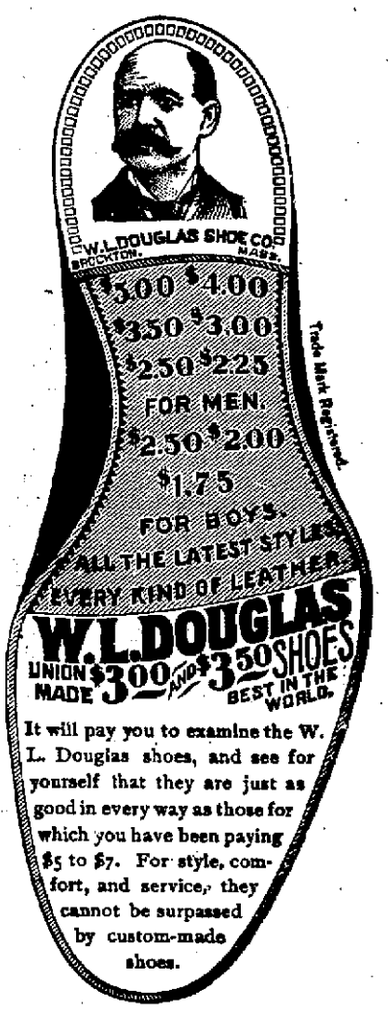

Every action in the body is under control of the nervous system, and to have perfect health this system must be in perfect condition. The amount of blood brought into the organs of the body depends on the action of the nerves which control the blood vessels in these parts. When the action of the nerves becomes perverted there is either a contraction or dilation of the blood vessels controlled by these netves. If the vessels are constricted the blood supply is insufficient; if dilated, too much blood is brought into the organ, in either case disease is the result. To restore health the circulation must be equalized, and to do this the nerves are stimulated by treating the nerve centres. Drugs, electricity, surgery or hipnotism are not used, but an understanding of the nervous system and how it controls the machinery of the body is necessary to effect a cure. That this method of healing is marvelously successful in curing disease can no longer be doubted, as scores of people in this vicinity have been restored to perfect health by means of magnetism after all other remedies had failed.

Prof. Funk extends to the suffering a cordial invitation to investigate his method of healing. If he cannot cure you, he tells you so. Examination and consultation absolutely free.

LUCK AND SUCCESS.

Some people believe in luck, and are possessed of the notion that without it, success, is an impossibility. A recent writer in the Ladies Home Journal is tinctured with this pernicious notion, and the publication is foolish enough to print his demoralizing statements, and send them broadcast to its large constituancy.

Mr. Bok has made a success of the Journal, but luck has had nothing to do with it.

The writer referred to, asks a lot of fool questions, which he don't attempt to answer, but leaves the reader to infer that luck is the only solution.

He says, two boys start out from the same home, both well equipped mentally and morally. One of them is successful in everything he undertakes. He possesses good business ability, and everything he touches turns into money. Before middle life is reached he is rich, and recognized as a great financier.

The other, with opportunities equally good, makes a failure of every effort, and at forty is a common everyday plodder. Then he asks, what makes the difference, and intimates that one was lucky and the other unfortunate.

Without knowing anything about the author of that sort of rot, it is safe to say that he is a plodder himself, working for some man whose brain and ability placed him in the ranks of employers.

It is apparent to the most casual observer, that success in any calling is the price of faithful, persistant, intelligent work, backed by a purpose that never takes failure into account.

Success means the accomplishment of a purpose, and the successes of life are as varied as the purposes.

The young man who possesses a genius for business, and a faculty to accumulate, if his sole purpose is to get rich, sacrifices everything to that purpose and wins.

If he possesses mechanical genius he applies himself with the same intelligent determination, surmounting all obstacles, and gains his purpose.

If he enters the field of science or invention, he applies the same methods, with the same satisfactory result.

If he takes up a profession, he fortifies himself with a liberal education, and is satisfied only when he stands in the front rank.

The girl who has a genius for music and expects to use it for more than an accomplishment, applies herself with the same intelligent determination and wins success.

If she proposes to devote her life to teaching, she is not satisfied until she knows the child as well as she knows the book. Success crowns her efforts because she intelligently purposed to win.

And so all through the numerous channels of work, people succeed and fail, not because of luck, but because of faithful purposeful work, or the lack of it.

Send a boy or girl into life with the notion that they will win some of the prizes if lucky, and you start them out on a perilous voyage, without rudder or compass. In watching for the lucky star, they miss the opportunities close at hand, and are as scure to fail as they are to live.

There are two classes of honest people who fail in accomplishment. One, the theorist, who lives in the air, and is never satisfied to get down to the practical. The other, and by far the larger class, the drifter, satisfied to float with the tide, and lacking the energy and purpose to work for single results.

Work. Intelligent, persistent work, is the price of success. Luck is not a factor, and any writer who advocates it, should be ruondly denounced.

Mr. Bok purposed years ago to put the circulation of the Ladies Home Journal at a round million. He has passed the 900,000 mark, not because of luck, but because of persistent purpose, intelligently worked out. That's success.

ELECTROLYSIS.

A good deal is being written now-a-days, about a new enemy that has developed with the advance of science, and that is a menace to private property and public safety. This enemy which works as a subtle influence, so quietly as not to be readily detected, and yet so persistently as to be very destructive, is called electrolysis.

In every-day English it means the working of electricity—in underground pipes—that escapes from the rails of electric street railways. The action of this electrical current on iron and lead pipes of every description is so destructive, that in a very short time they become worthless, and frequently the damage is not discovered until the pipes burst.

If they happen to be water mains the company or the city, whoever may be the owner, wakes up some morning to find their service so badly crippled as to be inoperative, and the city without fire protection.

The city of Dayton, Ohio, found itself in just this condition recently, and expert testimony shows that many other cities are in similar condition.

If a gas main is attacked, it leads to an explosion, not unfrequently resulting in loss of life and property.

New York, Cincinnati, Washington and some of the larger cities have remedied the evil, and it is only a matter of time when all cities will resort to the same methods of protection.

Water and gas companies and all other owners of underground pipe service, are absolutely at the mercy of this deadly current, and there is nothing they can do for self protection. The responsibility rests entirely with the electric railway companies and the cities that grant them franchises.

As a matter of economy, no railroad that is built to operate by its promoters, can afford the constant waste of motive power that leaves the roads at every revolution of the wheel, and as a matter of self protection and property rights no city can afford to permit this city.

waste current to find its way into the water and gas service mains of the

Two methods have been discovered to save this waste and protect property from damage by it. One, the most practical and least expensive, is known as the double trolly system, which completes the circuit and returns the current without permitting it to escape from the rail.

Janesville has one street railway that is causing more or less damage to property in the manner indicated. The city is now asked for another franchise which will doubtless be granted, as the people recognize all improvements as benificial, but in the granting of this franchise, the rights of others, and the protection of the city should be fully guarded.

The clause referring to electrolysis seys, that "the most improved methods shall be used." That is too indefinite; who is to be the judge of the "improved methods." It ought to amount to a positive guarantee against any and all damage to property on this account, and with the double trolly system, this can be done without hardship to the company, as it will save enough current in five years to pay the additional cost. The city has the right to protection which can only be furnished by proper construction and the proper time to assert this right is when the franchise is granted.

The council understands the situation thoroughly, and possesses the wisdom and good judgment to see that public and private interests are properly protected.

The gentlemen seeking the franchise also understand the situation. They are reasonable men, and will not object to reasonable conditions.

WOOD PULP AND PAPER.

Mr. John Norris, representing the International Paper Company, recently appeared before the Industrial Commission in Washington and gave some interesting figures concerning the manufacture of print paper.

The International Paper Company is a combine of several large paper mills, that control the output of more than half the print paper stock of the country. The entire product is about 2,500 tons per day. This vast stock of paper is all used by 2,500 American newspapers now published in this country, and the most of it is made from wood pulp.

A sharp advance occurred a year ago in print paper, owing to the scarcity of raw material. The drain on American forests has been so severe that more than half the supply used by the print mills is shipped from Canada and subject to duty, that manufacturers are attempting to have removed.

The object of Mr. Morris' interview before the Industrial Commission, was along this line, and the argument used was, that any tax upon news print, is a tax upon knowledge and upon the education of the people. That newspapers are not manufacturing goods and are exclusively used in the home market.

The arguments are good and should carry weight. White steel and iron have taken the place wood in structural work, and thus made good the shortage, occasioned by the depletion of Aemerican forests, nothing has yet been discovered as a substitute for wood pulp in the manufacture of cheap paper.

Canadian forests contain an ample supply for years to come, and congress will act wisely in advancing some reciprocal proposition that will admit Canadian pulp free of duty.

THE RAILROAD BILLS.

The assembly acted wisely in killing the railroad bill, that contemplated an increase of $600,000 in taxes on this class of corporations.

While the state must have money for current expenses, better by far to raise it by direct tax, than to ask the railroads to make good the shortage without any good argument behind the request.

The tax commission should have ample time to complete its work, and when that is done, all property, both corporate and private, should bear their share of the burden.

The railroads are heavy tax payers. They of course, enjoy unusual privileges. If it shall be found, when the commission completes its work, that these companies are not paying their just and equitable proportion, then they should be called on for their share and this they will pay cheerfully.

The people of the state are not in sympathy with a fight on railroads, and the action of the assembly in killing the bill will meet with public approval.

Wisconsin has not yet descended to the level of Kansas or Iowa. The state is good enough without very much in the way of radical reform, and the railroads are recognized as a factor that is contributing largely to prosperity.

Senator McLauren recently made a speech before the Southern Manufacturers' Club, in which he urged Southern democrats to return to the fold of Jeffersonian democracy, and forsake Bryanism. Senator Tillman, takes his colleague to task and says that the Kansas City platform represents true democracy, and that Senator McLauren is getting ready to join the republican camp. The outlook for democratic union is not very flattering.

Wisconsin is to be represented at the Buffalo exposition by the finest State building on the grounds. Our commonwealth is fast forging to the front rank in progresive enterprises.

The suicide of two bankers of Vancouver, Wash., proves again that it does not, and never has paid to speculate, especially with other peoples' money.

The states along our mighty rivers annually pay out millions in damages caused by floods, and never seem to take into consideration the cause of this devastation. The foolish destruction of thousands of acres of forest ought to be prohibited. The public lands ought to be planted with timber and our floods would cease.

If Germany and Russia continue their fun in China, the powers will have to send troops to rescue the Chinese.

Prof. Herron ought to join his forces with those of Prince Kropotkin and tour the country.

Private roulette and faro games are the go since Mayor Bull's inauguration at Madison.

From this time on the pirates will turn their attention to more profitable markets than the Philippines under American control.

LARGE STEAMER AGROUND.

Vessel on Berle Rock, Off Maine, May Be the Drumelzin.

York, Me., April 25.—Just before 9:30 o'clock this morning the fog which had hung over the water all the forenoon lifted for a few minutes, and a large steamer was seen to be aground on Berle rock, about a mile west of Boone island. Her name could not be made out. After about five minutes the fog settled down as thick as before. It is believed this is the British steamer Drumelzin, bound from Hamburg for Portland, previously reported stranded on Bib Rock ledge, not far from Berle rock.

New York, April 25.—Owing to the dense fog several Atlantic liners, reported passing Fire island yesterday, have not yet reached their docks. The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, sighted yesterday, has not since been seen. Other vessels due are the Anchoria and the Siberian, from Glasgow, and the Teutonic and the Georgian, from Liverpool.

BELOIT IS AFRAID TRICK IS POSSIBLE

COUNCIL DID NOT GIVE CLOUGH A 50 YEARS FRANCHISE.

He Will Have to Put Up Bonds or Start Building the Delavan Line Before He Can Get an Extension—Surveyors at Work on the Proposed Line.

Beloit is evidently under the impression that H. H. Clough is not sincere in his statements in regard to the proposed Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric road. There is a feeling in Beloit that after a franchise is granted the railroad that they will not carry out their agreement in regard to building the Delavan line. They think that in order to get a franchise in this city that Mr. Clough may have to make some agreemnt o run the line from Delavan to this city.

This feeling has been helped along by certain parties in this city who have told Beloit people not to worry about their franchise for it would be a long time before the road got a franchise from this city. These people have property interests in this city that they fear may be affected by the introduction of the road and for their own selfish interests are working to defeat the enterprise.

The Beloit council did not take any action in regard to the objections raised by Mr. Clough to the franchise granted him at their meeting last evening. Mr. Clough did not expect that they would and was surprised at the following article which appeared in The Sentinel this morning:

"The third surprise came when the council adjourned without considering an amendment to the franchise granted to the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Interurban railway extending the time of the franchise to fifty years instead of thirty years. The company has made such a demand and it was anounced that the concession would be made, but the council turned the corporation down."

Mr. T. S. Nolan, attorney for the road in this vicinity, said in regard to the article. "That he had an interview with the members of the council after the last meeting and stated Mr. Clough's objections. He was assurred at that time that when the line was started from Beloit to Delavan Lake the other twenty years asked for would be granted. He stated that their principal objection to the thirty-year franchise was that the franchise granted him through the county was for fifty years and the one at Rockford for forty-eight and the ordinance to be acted upon by the council in this city called for a fifty year franchise. If the power house and headquarters of the road were located in Beloit at the end of thirty years the city would have the right to shut the road out causing them great trouble and expense.

Mr. Clough and his engineers went over the proposed route between this city and Beloit yesterday afternoon and examined the different features of the ground and the best way of getting around the difficulties. The worst problem on the whole line is the steep grade at the foot of Main street on the Hughes farm.

The engineer started in surveying in that vicinity this morning to ascertain which is the most feasible route. A number of ways have been suggested and the one that finds the most favor with the company is the one that swings off from the Beloit road near the Gagan farm and goes down through the valley passing by the canning factory.. This would be a great accommodation to the factories and also help the road.

There is hardly an industry in town that will not be benefitted by this road. It is the universal statement of towns on roads of this character that their business has increased from twenty-five to fifty per cent.

The road from Janesville to Beloit via Beloit Rockton and Roscoe will cost to build and equip acording to the report of W. E. Davis, the expert engineer of Cleveland Construction company, about $600,000. This is a large sum of money to invest in an enterprise and it is no wonder that the company wishes to be sure of every detail before it invests this amount of money.

Third Birthday Anniversary

Little Miss Esther Harris celebrated the third aniversary of her birth in a delightful manner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris, 302 Sinclair street. Her little friends in the neighborhood were invited to share in the celebration and from three until six o'clock twelve happy little children had a very merry time.

Favorite games were played and the house rang with the sound of the children's voices and shouts of laughter. At five o'clock tea was daintly and prettily served and the menu included many things of which children are especially fond. Miss Esther was a very charming little hostess and her guests enjoyed heartily every minute of the time spent together.

H. C. KLEIN INVENTS FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

TRANSMITTER FOR USE IN ALL CENTRAL FIRE STATIONS.

It Can Be Used From All Places Where Automatic or Telephone Alarms Are Sent In—Alarm Can Be Given From Any Street Box in the City in an Instant.

City Electrician Henry C. Klein has invented a fire alarm transmitter, the first instrument being now fully completed and installed in the fire alarm system at the West Side fire station. The machine is a very handsome piece of work, the several parts being conveniently assembled so as not to interfere with its working, and at the same time appearing as a well balanced piece of mechanism.

The invention is wholly that of Mr. Klein. The work of construction was done by Mr. W. W. Wills, and the fine workmanship here exhibited is a credit to any first class mechanic. The transmitter is intended for use in central fire stations, where automatic or telephone alarms are sent in, and will prove a most valuable piece of apparatus in any fire department especially in the smaller cities.

The mechanism of this transmitter is so arranged that an alarm can be given from any street box in the city, or from any factory or hotel that is connected by automatic or private system. Telephone alarms can be given as accurately as the street box. For example: C. K. Miltimore resides at the corner of Center and Eastern avenues and has a telephone in his house.

He discovers his house on fire, but the nearest alarm box is on Armour street, quite half a mile away. He telephones the West Side fire station that his house is on fire at the corner of Center and Eastern avenues. The Klein transmitter and fire department will do the rest.

In an instant a plug is pulled and placed in position at a button numbered "444" a switch is turned and the big bell is sounding the alarm as if box 444 had been pulled. People residing a like distance from a fire alarm box and having a telephone in their house will save much valuable time in telephoning the alarm but they must be particular and give the name of the street and the number of the house.

The fire department will know the nearest box or the one to pull. Just what Mr. Klein will do with his invention is not decided, but for the present it will be in regular service at the West Side station where all of the fire alarm machinery is located. Much could be said in favor of this machine.

It will to a great extent take the place of street boxes, especially in towns that have no alarm system, but are supplied with telephones. In such places all that would be required would be to divide the place into fire alarm districts numbered and the transmitter will unerringly give the alarm and number of the district.

Chief Spencer requests that all telephone calls for the fire department be sent direct to the West Side fire station, and that senders of such calls be particular and give the name of the street and number of the building. The alarm will follow instantly as from the alarm box nearest the point indicated.

WAR POLICY IS DENOUNCED

Former Treasurer of Cape Colony Condems Present Methods.

THE EVILS OF ARMY RULE.

Respectable Persons Convicted on Testimony of Natives—Present Course, He Says, If Persisted In, Will Lose South Africa to Great Britain.

London, April 25.—J. X. Merriman, the former treasurer of Cape Colony, and who is now a representative of the Africander bond in England, speaking at a meeting of the League of Liberals today, against aggression and militarism, said military law, the abnegation of all law was established in Cape Colony. The newspapers had not heard of the treachery and espionage going on. Respectable people were committed on the evidence of natives alone. They were brought up and fined for harmless observations, called seditious, and the town guards harried them. These things created greater irritation and indignation than actual violence. The press was deliberately stopped and four editors had been sent to jail. The fruits of this policy would be bitter, as the memory of these insults burned the hearts of the people. Merriman detailed instances of the punishment of the Dutch under military law, usually on the testimony of natives of a "cheeky girl" being fined for saying things against the town guards. Martial law and the censorship throughout Cape Colony prevented the people of England from knowing the hardships of the Dutch. As an Englishman, Merriman said, he viewed the policy pursued in Cape Colony with the blackest dismay. If persisted in, South Africa was lost to the British empire. The only thing that could save it was recognition that the people wanted self-government and were determined to have it. J. W. Sauer, the former commissioner of public works of Cape Colony, said the camps in which the Boer women and children were kept were guarded by sentries with loaded rifles and fixed bayonets. A majority of the women had been placed in them against their will. Their homes had been burned and their possessions had been taken. He had tried to get the military authorities, through the government of Cape Colony, to permit 200 or 300 women and children camped at Port Elizabeth to be liberated, food and shelter having been promised them by the town, but the military authorities refused the request. Resolutions opposing annexation and crown government were adopted. The correspondent of the Globe in Bermuda says Tucker's and Dorrell islands have been taken over by the British government, and will be prepared for the reception of Boer prisoners.

Boers Loot a Camp.

Cape Town, April 25.—Fifteen Boers under command of a local Cape Colony rebel have looted the camp of the Cape police at Alleman's Poort, near Dordrecht. They succeeded in stealing several horses. The circulation of Hillegas' book, "With the Boers," has been prohibited in the Worcester district.

DOINGS OF THE LAW MAKERS.

ILLINOIS.

Wednesday, April 24.

Mr. Rinaker's bill giving salaries instead of fees to clerks in supreme and appellate courts passed the house by a vote of 79 to 36. Litigants will pay a flat fee of $15 a case to be turned into the state. Clerk's salaries will be: Clerk of the Supreme Court, $5,000 per annum; clerks of the Appellate Court, first district, $5,000 per annum, second district $3,000 per annum, third district $3,000, fourth district $2,500. Among other bills passed by the house was the one appropriating $250,000 for an Illinois exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis. The senate passed the house bill (Pendarvis) amending the juvenile court act, Senator Putnam being the only one to vote no.

Fire! Fire!!

When that cry sounds how people rush to help and sympathize! And when some fireman rescues a woman from the flames, the streets echo with applauding shouts.

And yet if that woman had perished in the flames it is possible that she would have suffered less than she suffers almost daily from the inflammation which disease has lighted in the delicate womanly organism.

That fire of inflammation can be put out. The gnawing ulcer can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes womanly regularity and dries enfeebling drains, but it heals inflammation and ulcerations and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I suffered for four years with what four physicians pronounced ulceration and prolapsus of the uterus," writes Mrs. Ada Brooks, of Kirbyville, Taney Co., Missouri. "Also inflammation of bladder and urethra. My case was chronic and complicated. Had several good physicians, but kept getting worse. Had been confined to my bed five months when I wrote to you. I received your reply very soon and then dismissed my physician and began taking Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took eight bottles of his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and began to get better at once. In two months I could sit up in a chair, and kept getting better. In four months could do all my house work, including washing and sewing."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The steamer persisted, and Cole fired three shots, one passing through the heart of Terry. Cole was arrested.

Louisville, April 25.—Fire destroyed the plant of the Eclipse Vinegar works at Thirtieth street and Broadway, and was indirectly responsible for an accident in which one fireman lost his life and three were injured. Charles Neville lost his right leg in a collision between a hook and ladder wagon and a fire engine and died at 1:20 a. m. The loss on the fire is estimated at $20,000, partially covered by insurance.

Going to Build

Whether you contemplate building at an early date or not, you should have a copy of "BAKER'S TWENTIETH CENTURY HOMES" It is the most complete book of Architectural Designs published.

Nearly 150 pages, printed on heavy enamel paper. It is not a theoretical book. Every design shown is from the actual working plans of buildings that have been erected under the direction of our supervising architect. Consequently it is practical in every respect.

It embraces subjects from an attractive cottage at a few hundred dollars to a modern, up-to-date residence, costing many thousand dollars.

The perspectives are full-page illustrations while the floor plans are half-page sketches.

The descriptions are complete and easily understood; in fact it is an ideal book of practical, up-to-date designs and intelligent descriptions.

The regular price is $2.00 but we would like to present you a copy free of charge. If you could call at our office we would take pleasure in presenting you a copy free of charge. As this is not possible, we will send you a copy by express, charges prepaid upon receipt of only 25c, to cover cost of transportation.

Bone Fertilizer?

Don't all speak at once. Use 400 lbs. per acre and use it every year till you have raised the grade to No. 1—less acres and more fertilizer will do the business—I intend to keep it on hand, but your order should be placed early to be sure of a supply, as the demand will be largely increased this year.

RESCUE OF OUTLAW FEARED.

"Black Jack" Ketchum, Manacled, on Way to Place of Execution.

Trinidad, Col., April 25.—"Black Jack" Ketchum, the famous outlaw, who was at the head of the band of train robbers that held up a train at Folsom, N. M., Aug. 16, 1899, passed through Trinidad this morning in charge of the sheriff of Union county, New Mexico, accompanied by Special Agent Reno of the Colorado & Southern and a strong force of deputies.

The sheriff and party came in on a delayed Santa Fe train and were transferred to a special on the Colorado & Southern railway on which they continued their journey to Clayton, N. M., where "Black Jack" is to be hanged on Friday next. The prisoner was closely watched, as it appeared that friends of the outlaw will attempt his rescue.

He was manacled with a heavy steel belt around his waist and his left arm, the only one he has, was secured to this belt by handcuffs. His legs were pinioned together with handcuffs. He was confined in a steel lined mail car with iron grated windows.

A School Teacher and Five Friends to Hear Robson

That great actor in "She Stoops to Conquer" at Myers Opera House, May 3. The Gazette stands the expenses.

THE GAZETTE has purchased a box for Friday, May 3, when Stuart Robson produces "She Stoops to Conquer," at Myers Opera House, which will be presented to the most popular school teacher, same to be decided by coupon vote. The motive that prompts The Gazette to make this unusual offer is that the famous poet, Oliver Goldsmith, is the author of the play, and all students should be familiar with his works. To vote, cut out the coupon from The Gazette, sign the name of your favorite teacher and mail or bring to the Dramatic Editor of The Gazette. All votes must be cast by noon of Thursday, May 2. The box will hold six, thus giving the winner of the contest the privilege of choosing five other friends for her party.

There will be no expense incurred. The Gazette pays the bills. If you make it a point to see that your favorite teacher secures a great many votes, undoubtedly if she is chosen she will include you in the party. Look for the coupon each day.

STUART ROBSON

I vote for

as the popular person who is to receive the box for Stuart Robson's production of "She Stoops to Conquer" at the Myers Opera House, Friday, May 3.
